

On Compatible Propositional Systems

Marek Nasieniewski¹ and Krystyna Mruczek-Nasieniewska²

¹ Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Toruń, Poland
`mnasien@umk.pl`

² Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Toruń, Poland
`Krystyna.Mruczek-Nasieniewska@umk.pl`

The formulation of the notion of P-compatibility in the field of equational logics can be treated as an inspiration for the development of propositional systems, which, in a sense, correspond to this initial notion and, on the other hand — as it seems — fit into the idea of relating logics. We give some proposals and discuss the problems that arise.